34	YES	Hello, I lied : a novel	Kerr, M. E.	LGBTQ- Gender confusion, EXPLICIT content gay/bisexual issues									1	1
35	YES	History is all you left me	Silvera, Adam	LGBTQ- Gay and bisexual teen boys, A LOT of GRAPHIC sexual content. Book Review: "Keep in mind this book does contain sex scenes!" "I also really love how Silvera 'goes there' with many taboo topics, such as sex, abortion, and drugs. These are issues that real teens face, but often don't make it into young adult books. I am very impressed with how easily Silvera introduces many of these topics, and mentions them as if they are not a big deal."									1	1
36	YES	How it all blew up	Ahmadi, Arvin	LGBTQ- Muslim gay teen coming out story, foul language, teen drinking/partying, heavy make-out scenes with sexual content, "sexually open" relationships. EXPLICIT scene in section" Eleven Days Ago." There was a VERY disgusting and graphic nipple piercing, nipple sucking scene described for what can only be described as shock value. VILE and NASTY!									1
37	YES	How to love : a novel	Cotugno, Katie	EXPLICIT- Teen pregnancy, excessive and graphic sexual content, heavy drug use, horrible language!									1
38	YES	I'll give you the sun	Nelson, Jandy	Amazon Teacher's Pick LGBTQ- Excessive teen drinking, vulgar language, and drug use. GRAPHIC sex scene with an adult and a minor. Pedophilia, gay boy's romance, character is an artist and draws nude photos of people that are described in detail.							3	1	1
39	YES	If I was your girl	Russo, Meredith	LGBTQ- Trans, vulgar language, suicide, EXPLICIT sex scenes and nudity, drugs, teen drinking, politics, racism, class and poverty, RAPE, sex change operation									1
40	YES	If you could be mine	Farizan, Sara	LGBTQ- Lesbians, Muslims, Iranian girls in love but in secret as its against the Muslim religion and culture they live in. STRONG language, teen opium use, prostitutes, talks about sex and sex reassignment surgery in detail and for a lot of the book. Book Review: "Safar considers becoming a transgender Iranian, who as long as they are heterosexual after their gender reassignment are more accepted than gays. Safar doesn't feel like she's a man trapped in a woman's body. But if she stays a woman, she'll never be able to openly be with her true love. Safar, intent with going through with transitioning, visits a doctor and the doctor explains the surgical procedure in great detail, and I felt like this was done for shock value. Safar passes out after hearing about the details of the graphic surgery."							1
41	YES	In other lands : a novel	Brennan, Sarah Rees	LGBTQ- Bisexual, hyper-sexualization of teens, A LOT of EXPLICIT talk about sex, open sexual relationships, homosexuality, gender role reversals, seeks to emasculate men, characters have sex at age 14.								1
42	YES	It's Perfectly Normal	Harris, Robie H.	SEX INSTRUCTION for children and teens. Book by Planned Parenthood (illegal to promote PP in TX Schools), teaches masturbation. Not in line with TEKS. Needs Parental Consent for content.							2
43	YES	Katie.Com	Tarbox, Katherine	EXPLICIT- "SOFT PORN", talks in detail about oral sex, rape, internet use for child and adult sexual acts, teen sneaking around her mother to talk to an adult man she does not know, she meets a stranger in a hotel room who rapes her. Supposed to be based on a true story, but many reviews stated the facts were not correct and too many extreme descriptions and details were added.									2	1
44	YES	Kiss number 8	Venable, Colleen A. F.	LGBTQ- Transgender and lesbian teen romance. Terrible language and naked drawings of trans teens before they transitioned. Extremely offensive and blasphemous to Jesus Christ. Book Review: "Less than ten pages in, the main character has giggled about the statue of Jesus at the front of her church and said how she is "drooling" over Him because there aren't any other cute guys around." Book Quote: "So you're telling me you come to church because you have the hots for Jesus? No. I have the hots for that sculpture of Jesus. Shame you never get to see the back. Bet Jesus' got an ass that could crack a walnut...hell, I bet it could shell a cashew."							1

49	Yes	Me and Earl and the Dying Girl	Andrews, Jesse	EXPLICIT- Literary PORN! Drugs, Language. Talk of "eating pussy" on multiple occasions							1	1	1 (+Audiobook)
50	YES	Monday's Not Coming	Tiffany Jackson	LGBTQ- Homosexuality, prostitution, Amazon Teacher's Pick - Book Review: "The theme is adult. [Spoilers] 13 and 14 year old girls getting drunk, having graphic sex. Child abuse. Dead kids stuffed into freezers." "The f-word about 30 times, references to oral sex and abuse."								1	1
51	YES	More happy than not	Silvera, Adam	LGBTQ- Terrible language, gay romance, suicide, underage drinking, sex. Book Review: "He's a normal teenager who like comics, curses a lot, plays games with his friends, masturbates and asks his friends ( and brother) for sex advice."									1
52	YES	My heartbeat	Freyman-Weyr, Garret	LGBTQ- gay teens, sex scene, and a lot of talk about sex.									1
53	YES	Notes from the blender	Cook, Trish	LGBTQ- perverted book, talks a lot about masturbation, same-sex marriage parents, vulgar talk about sex throughout the entire book. Book Review: "Declan just obsesses about sex. Porn and masturbation are mentioned frequently." "...forever playing violent xBox-games, watching non-stop internet porn, and talking the rest of the time about their own penis and its voluntary and involuntary activities." "It has pre-marital sex and its unintended consequences, a gay wedding and lesbian clergy. To be clear: there are ample references to teen sexual desire, self-love, and expletives."							1	1
54	YES	One man guy	Barakiva, Michael	LGBTQ- EXPLICIT- young man experiencing sex with older men.									1

76	YES	The art of being normal	Williamson, Lisa	LGBTQ- Trans, A LOT OF GRAPHIC SEX, sex talk, language, author is sexualizing children, even trans people were offended in the reviews.									1
77	YES	The Bluest Eye	Tony Morrison	PORNOGRAPHIC and VULGAR. EXPLICIT scenes and descriptions of child molestation, domestic violence, prostitution, racism. CRT. Book Review: "I don't understand this book. It's like it's saying, 'hey this is the theme, every white dude is a descendent of a racist slave owners, actually, they were all racist even to the 20th century, every last one of them. They still are...books like these give me a bad image, it's trash, and it stirs up old hatred.'" " I was also extremely put off by the nauseatingly graphic ways Toni Morrison describes physical living -- from food to illness to sex. If you like reading descriptions about snot, phlegm, vomit, swallowing globs of Vicks salve, child rape, animal abuse by angry children, sexual satisfaction produced by loose sanitary napkins, dogs choking on poisoned meat, and preachers who can't resist female children's blossoming bosoms, then this is the book for you."									2	1

93	YES	The what's happening to my body? book for boys	Madaras, Lynda	EXPLICIT Sex instruction for boys. Against the TX EDU CODE 26 & 28. SEX-ED REQUIRES PARENTAL NOTICE AND CONSENT, the library is NOT an exception to this rule! Describes in graphic detail and pictures: wet dreams, sex, anal sex, homosexual sex, dirty slang words that you can't say on broadcast without a fine. Book Quote: pages 198-199 under the "Making Decisions about How to Handle Your Romantic and Sexual Feelings": "Other young people just "go along" with what their parents or their religions say is right or wrong, without really thinking much about it... We're not saying that you shouldn't follow your parents' or your religion's teachings or rules...But we've found that young people who accept, without question, what they've been taught sometimes run into problems...The rules sort of "fall apart" or "cave in" in the face of tremendous pressure to experiment sexually. We think this sometimes happens because the rules weren't really "theirs" in the first place."							1

117		Geography Club	Hartinger, Brent	LGBTQA -Gender confusion. Storyline is about gay teens having sex. Graphic nature unknown, but suspected									1	1
118		Gingerbread	Cohn, Rachel	LGBTQ- Sex, teen pregnancy and abortion, suicide attempts, cutting, teen drinking, drugs, shop lifting. Review: "Her old boyfriend Justin got her pregnant and she had to go to her biological father for the money to get an abortion." Graphic nature unknown, but suspected							1
119		Girl mans up	Girard, M-E.	LGBTQ- Abortion, assault, lesbian, gender confusion, language. Graphic nature unknown, but suspected									1	1
120		Highwire moon : a novel	Straight, Susan	LOTS of Vulgar language, sexual content, father is drug-addict, mom was illegal alien and deported. Book Review: "Straight is using this novel as a way of informing us of the plight of the illegal alien and thus is more interested in the "world view" rather than the specifics." "She plunges the reader into the horrors of migrant labor with examples of violence, prevalent drug use, and sexual predation. Her characters are great-hearted people, with big dreams, but instead of focusing on the plot (how about some interaction between the main characters?!?!), Susan Straight instead chooses to hit us over the head with her thoughts on love, race, and class." Graphic nature unknown, but suspected							1	1
121		Hold me closer : the Tiny Cooper story	Levithan, David	LGBTQ- gay teen musical. Book Review: "The story does a good job of normalizing homosexuality." "I would expect it to stir controversy and be banned if not careful of context. I can see that the sex parts while mild would still be objectionable to some." Graphic nature unknown							2		1
122		Hot dog girl	Dugan, Jennifer	LGBTQ-main character bisexual, best friend is lesbian. Bisexual love triangle (boy, lesbian, bisexual girl), foul language, teen drinking, discussions of sex Graphic nature unknown							1	2	1
123		Hurricane Child	Callender, Kheryn	LGBTQ- Amazon Teacher's Pick Lesbians, confusing pronouns used by teachers. Plot: character abandoned by mom, dad is always drunk, teachers physically punish her, she falls in love with a new girl at school, sees dead spirits and feels like she is being stalked by a spirit wearing black, mom is suicidal, dad has secret love child, mom is later found raising another man's baby. LOTS OF MATURE CONTENT!	1	1						1
124		I hope you're listening	Ryan, Tom	LGBTQ- Lesbians, suicide, drugs, grooming/pedophilia, recreational marijuana use, sexual content. Graphic nature unknown									1
125		It's not like it's a secret	Sugiura, Misa	LGBTQ- Lesbian teens, polygamy in parental relationship, racism, cheating, underage drinking, "off the page sex" (not sure how graphic the mention is), LOTS of racism.									1
126		Lobizona	Garber, Romina	LGBTQ- Misogyny, sex. Book Review: "Glorifying illegal immigration and making no secret of hatred for law enforcement and the actual rule of law." "Lobizona contains sporadic, but fairly serious, language. There is relatively major LGBT content. There is brief sexual content." "I didn't realize how much attention Garber was going to give the issue of undocumented immigrants. She obviously has a very clear view on the subject, and she shares it, through her characters and an author's note, multiple times. Her political views infuse the entire book, and frankly, I found it highly distracting. I don't want to be pulled into a political rant in the middle of a fantasy novel." Graphic nature unknown								1	1
127		Love & leftovers : a novel in verse	Tregay, Sarah	Sex talk, depression/self-pity Graphic nature unknown							(1 lost)	1
128		Meet cute	Jennifer L. Armentrout	LGBTQ- collection of love stories from different authors. Sexual content. Graphic nature unknown								1	1
129		My heart underwater	Fantauzzo, Laurel Flores	LGBTQ- EXPLICIT- Adult novel, intense (gay) love story, Book Summary: "After Corazon's mother catches her kissing her older female teacher, Corazon is sent to the Philippines to live with a half brother." Graphic nature unknown								1	1
130		Odd One Out by Nic Stone	Stone, Nic	LGBTQ- Lots of love triangles and sex talked about, adult sex with minor. Graphic nature unknown, but suspected									1

147		A love story starring my dead best friend	Horne, Emily	LGBTQ- Gender confusion, Lesbian issues, teen death							1	1	1
148		Abortion	Mary E. Williams	Described as a collection of views and arguments from both sides, but it is not. The book is very pro-abortion and tries to use legal arguments as fact instead of option. Are there books provided that give legal arguments and views against abortion?									1	1
149		Abortion : interpreting the constitution	Hand, Carol	Book charts the shifts in interpretation of the U.S. Constitution on Abortion. Book has a pro-abortion bias. Are there books provided that give legal arguments and views against abortion?									1
150		Abortion : opposing viewpoints	Tamara L. Roleff	Book claims to have opposing views but has a pro-abortion bias. Are there books provided that give legal arguments and views against abortion?									1	1
151		After	Efaw, Amy	Awful content in this book. The story is of a 16-year-old girl who has sex, denies that she had sex, denies pregnancy, gives birth, wants her baby to be dead, realizes her baby is not dead, puts it in a bag and throws it in a dumpster. She tries to hide that she has given birth, almost dies and moves on like nothing ever happened. Vulgar, cruel.									1
152		An indigenous peoples' history of the United States for young people	Mendoza, Jean	CRT Illegal in Texas! Anti-Catholic, anti-Christian and anti-white, white people oppressing rhetoric.							2	1	1
153		Ana on the edge	Sass, A. J.	LGBTQ- Gender confusion, transgender, bi-sexual, non-binary, lots of use of different pronouns. Book Quote: "You alone get to decide who you are." "I am a _____. Girl? No, I don't think so. Boy? Maybe, but it's not that simple." Character is non-binary, Chinese American (with possibly some Hawaiian heritage as well), and Jewish.					1		1	1
154		And Tango makes three	Richardson, Justin	LGBTQ- Amazon Teacher's Pick. Tells children that homosexuality is a normal part of life and found in nature. Chronicles two male penguins in the NYC zoo who were taking turns sitting on an egg where the mother had died, so the zoo keepers said the penguins were gay and adopted a child. Classified under the "adoption" section not LGBTQ.	1	1

162		Can't take that away	Salvatore, Steven	LGBTQ-Lesbians, suicide, physical abuse, teen drinking, gender queer teens and a lot of different identity descriptions.								1
163		Caste : the origins of our discontents	Wilkerson, Isabel	CRT ILLEGAL IN TEXAS- Author Isabel Wilkerson claims the United States has systematically embedded racism into the foundation of society, thus institutionalizing a caste system built on skin color. "Most people see America as racist..." Wilkerson completely ignores Asian American minorities in her books. She fails to address why in a caste system organized by race with "whiteness" as the dominant identity that Asian Americans are the most educated, wealthiest ethnic group. Of course black/African Americans historically suffered much deeper, more severe iniquities than Asian Americans, but her thesis is predicated on the claim that society is systemically organized to ensure dominant status for white Americans.									1
164		Cemetery Boys	Thomas, Aiden	LGBTQ- Trans/witchcraft. Foul language. Violence includes a physical attack by an evil spirit, references to shootings, and a ritual human sacrifice involving stabbing and bloodletting							1	1	1

189		GLBT teens and society	Nagle, Jeanne	LGBTQ- Says it presents an unbiased view of "factual information", but also says in the preface there is a "mix of personal advice" in the book. Personal advice is not an "unbiased view." Book Summary: "Prefaces each title with the notion that sexual orientation is a process involving questions that may not be answered for years, the authors sort out gender identities; societal reactions; and misconceptions about being gay, lesbian, bisexual, or transgender."									1	1

196		Highly illogical behavior	Whaley, John Corey	LGBTQ- Gay teens							4	2	1
197		Ho'onani : hula warrior	Gale, Heather	LGBTQ- Gender confusion. This picture book is based on the true story of Ho'onani Kamai, a young gender queer girl growing up in Kalihi Valley. Book Review: "I think this book is popular because of the prompting of a transgender child instead of the quality of the book."	1
198		Hold my hand	Barakiva, Michael	LGBTQ- gay teens, inappropriate sexual content. Book Review: "Ethan is forced to explain how two men make love by using an Armenian cooking analogy: Now a man will slide his 'kebab' into his partner's 'pita,' but they'll need to rub in a lot of 'hummus' first." "A frank discussion on education, discrimination and acceptance in society as a whole. When Alek points out that with helicopter parents, parental controls on devices at home and at school, and the curriculum refusing to teach sexual health for the LGBTQIA+ community, there was nowhere for him to learn about issues concerning his health and development." "Then there was the whole crusade (as I would call it) against the church and what they stand for. Specifically LGBT, woman rights, abortion, etc.. I am a bi girl myself + a Christian, but I just couldn't connect at all with all the stuff happening, it was just too much and felt way too pushy."							1

202		I am Jazz!	Herthel, Jessica	LGBTQ- Trans- autobiographical picture book about a transgender child. "I have a girl brain but a boy body." The book says his parents didn't understand him until the doctor told them he was transgender. He then talks about how he convinced his school to let him use the girl's bathrooms and play on the girl's sports teams. This is content that needs to be handled by the PARENTS, not the school.		1

205		In our mothers' house	Polacco, Patricia	LGBTQ- three kids who are all different ethnicities adopted by Lesbian mothers. The book is confusing for young children, and seems to push an agenda above an actual storyline. Depicts the women touching each other affectionately. This content is better handled in the home, not in the school.			1
206		In the role of Brie Hutchens . . .	Melleby, Nicole	LGBTQ- lesbians, coming out, book is about a girl in Catholic school that lies to her mom about a school achievement to detract from the fact her mom just walked in on her viewing pornographic pictures of naked women. Speaks of religion and Catholicism as abusive bigotry that is forced on children.							1	1

214		Jane against the world : Roe v. Wade and the fight for reproductive rights	Blumenthal, Karen	Seeks to "educate" on Roe v. Wade, biased approach from the author, highlighting and justifying abortion. Do the libraries have any pro-life books to ensure they are offering content from every perspective? Book Review: "It's almost as if we're going back in time where the old white men and religious zealots want to deny a woman's right to choose. This is an emotional fight and fight we will win. At the end of Jane Against the World, Karen includes a glossary and a timeline of this historic fight for a woman's freedom. I urge every young woman to read this book to gain a clear and true picture of the past, the present and what may happen in the future if we don't continue the fight."							1		1
215		Jane, unlimited	Cashore, Kristin	LGBTQ- Bisexual, lesbians, sex talk (not sure how explicit), lots of bad language, VIOLENT! Book Review: "Man shot and bleeding to death, a woman's arm is crushed and mangled, another man is crushed to death, a dog is shot in the ear and bites the bad guys. Mention that Jane's parents died in a plane crash when she was a baby. The aunt who raises her freezes to death in Antarctica. Talk of biological weapons and a botched bank robbery. In a book being read, a beloved character is skinned alive."								1	1

227		My best friend, maybe	Carter, Caela	LGBTQ- lesbians, teen romance							1
228		My invented life	Bjorkman, Lauren	LGBTQ- Lesbian and bisexual romance. Book Review: "In this story, the characters' sexual orientations are rather fluid, defying categorization. You can never completely say that this one's a lesbian, that one's totally gay, and so on and so forth. This is admirable because labels regarding sexual orientation are hardly ever direct in real life: there is a huge amount of gray area between heterosexuality and homosexuality, an area that many people unknowingly dwell in."							1

Book Review: "Follow Trinity as they explore their rainbow hair and all parts of their identity as a black transgender girl on the autism spectrum." "My favorite part in this book is when Trinity's family talks with them about their feelings and finds a way to give Trinity their own 'rainbow.'"			1
232		Nate expectations	Federle, Tim	LGBTQ- Gay teens. Book Summary: "Nate has a secret relationship with another boy -- there's a little talk of kissing but mostly a lot of FaceTime -- but he hasn't come out to his family."							1	1
233		New kid	Craft, Jerry	CRT- book is incredibly racist! Amazon teacher's pick. Book Review: "This book, like critical race theory in general, abandons the idea that all men are created equal and should be judged by the content of their character rather than the color of their skin. This book uses racist terms such as Ore to describe black people who are "black on the outside but white on the inside. I would not recommend allowing a young child to read this book unless you are doing so to expose them to the evils of critical race theory. Our nation has made incredible strides regarding race over the last several decades which is unacceptable to those who utilize race to divide our nation on the basis of race." "One takeaway from this book is that white kids need to guard their speech when they talk to their fellow students of color, because they could inadvertently commit a microaggression. In the book, a white student assumes a fellow student's mom must make great tacos because he is Hispanic. This example is not racism, but a natural ignorance of youth born of limited life experience common to all children. I don't want kids to think they are racist because they don't understand other students' cultures and backgrounds. I would rather kids talk to each other freely. It is hard enough for any child to make friends without adding a layer of fear and division between them. My kids were assigned to read this in 7th grade; it is well below reading level and of very little literary value; I assume the teacher chose it because it teaches about microaggressions."	3	2	5	4	5	2	4
234		No girls allowed: tales of daring women dressed as men for love, freedom and adventure	Hughes, Susan	LGBTQ- transgender, feminism, Book Summary: "The books tells the tales of 7 women who dressed (and mostly who passed) as men in their lifetimes. From well-known names as Egyptian Pharaoh Hapshetsut and the Chinese Warrior Mu Lan to 19th century doctor James Barry and escaped slave Ellen Craft. Each story is told simply by Susan Hughes and Willow Dawson. No judgement are made, no lessons taught (except the obvious - if women are allowed opportunity, they can excel)." "I'd have preferred a broader scope to this book, one that focused not just on women who lived as men, but on women who did men's things as women. While I applaud these women for working within their systems, a book that aims to empower girls with 'you can do anything boys can do' undermines its message when it adds 'as long as you pretend to be a boy.'"			1					1

240		Ordinary Hazards: A Memoir	Grimes, Nikki	True story from the author's childhood. Child abuse, sexual abuse/molestation discussed in detail, rape, mental illness, schizophrenia, drug addiction, abandonment, self-harm. Very heavy, depressing book that covers a lot of traumatic topics. Should be handled with discretion.								1
241		Orpheus girl	Rebele-Henry, Brynne	LGBTQ- lesbian teens. Book Review: "A girl named Raya is sent to a conversion therapy camp after she is caught having sex with her girlfriend, Sarah, in a conservative Texas town." "The first third of the book describes Raya's family, sexual history, and deepening relationship with Sarah. At about the 34% mark, she and Sarah are caught and sent to the same "conversion therapy" camp. The remaining 2/3 of the book describes, in graphic detail, the verbal abuse and physical torture of the two girls and the others trapped in the camp." "Trigger warnings are suicide, self-harm, electroshock therapy (which is represented as torture), misgendering a transgender person on purpose and forcing them to dress like the opposite gender and go by their "dead name," and lots of other homophobic stuff."								1
242		Out of the pocket	Konigsberg, Bill	LGBTQ...fictional story about high school quarterback's anxiety with coming out as gay and changing everyone's mind about gay athletes.									1
243		Pants project	Clarke, Cat	LGBTQ- Transgender middle schooler with lesbian moms. Book Review: "The dress code means Liv will have to wear a skirt for the next three years. But what about kids like Liv who may have a female body, but know that on the inside they are really a boy? The dress code doesn't take transgender students into account at all."			1				1	1

248		Pride : the story of Harvey Milk and the Rainbow Flag	Sanders, Rob	LGBTQ- Amazon Teacher's Pick. Harvey Milk is a well known pedophile. This book covers the history of the pride flag and the part he played in it's creation. Book Reviews: "The content is not appropriate for a picture book meant for children. Topics and terms of LGBTQ, assassination, gay, protests, etc are not age appropriate for elementary children." "Although I understand the importance of teaching children about history, hope and equality, the subject matter of this book talks about much more than that. It talks about Gay activism, assassination, LGBT terminology, Gay marriage legislation, and much more adult content than children are mature enough to handle. This book is listed for audiences for grade level 3rd-5th grade. As a Pediatric Therapist and Psychologist, I can assure you that this content is not appropriate for this age group."		1	1	1		1	1

251		Protect and defend : a novel	Patterson, Richard North	Fiction, very biased, pro-abortion political agenda, extreme hatred for pro-life. Book Review: "A principal character is a young, female, brilliant lawyer, beautiful, went to the best schools, she's the savage defender of the local abortion clinic that is being picketed by pro-life Christians who are described virtually as terrorist and thugs." "America, as portrayed in this novel is a land of manipulative mean-spirited, deep-pocketed Christians and liberals courageous enough to battle these evil minions. Regardless of what the reader may think of the abortion debate, there is nothing quite so tedious as being bludgeoned with terribly one-sided arguments for over six hundred pages."									1
252		Proxy	London, Alex	LGBTQ- Bad Language, sexual references. Book Reviews: "Syd has been a proxy almost all of his life. As a proxy, his job is to take the punishments earned by his debt 'owner'. He is very much a purchased slave. He is physically punished, and he is often called upon to perform arduous jobs as part of his punishment. His life is irrevocably changed when he must take a punishment that will have long lasting effects. (Murder)" "The wealthiest people can get anything they want; latest technology, genetically modified genes; or even get away with murder. 255		Rainbow : a first book of pride	Genhart, Michael	LGBTQ- homosexual children's picture book. Amazon teacher's pick. Book Review: "Several of the letters, "Pan" and "Bi" come from the words pan-sexual and bi-sexual. The word "sexual" is left out for obvious reasons. Referencing sexual words and teaching them to young children is so close to grooming." "Several of the words come from drag culture (such as sashay, where the page actually shows young boys crossdressed and "strutting" in a room showing off to friends). "	1
256		Rainbow revolutionaries : 50 LGBTQ+ people who made history	Prager, Sarah	LGBTQ- Highlights accomplishments of LGBTQ people. Book Review: "We read that tuberculosis researcher Alan L. 258		Rick	Gino, Alex	LGBTQ- same author as George. Confusing. Exploring sexuality. Book Reviews: "...he doesn't like the way it makes him feel when a girl is pointed out as sexy but Rick feels nothing. Rick is afraid something is wrong with him. Luckily, he has the internet, and so when his parents aren't around, he studies types of sexuality and how they manifest. He learns some new words: "asexual," not feeling sexually attracted to anyone; "aromantic," not feeling romantically about anyone; and "demisexual," feeling attracted only to certain very special people with whom one has a deep emotional connection." "He discovers in his homeroom that a student he knew years ago in elementary school as a boy has now become a very pretty and vivacious girl named Melissa. He is very curious about this, but Melissa has confided her truth to him and asked Rick not to "out" her as being transsexual." "So, it is a revelation that his own grandfather is a crossdresser or transvestite occasionally, and not afraid to show a bit of his female side. This makes Rick feel even closer to his grandfather."			1				1	1

263		Separate is never equal	Tonatiuh, Duncan	True, important story about Sylvia Menendez, but told with bias. *Suggest requesting all teaching notes and materials prior to this being taught. Book Reviews: "This book is made for upper elementary school or middle school. It has a lot of information that is harder for younger children to comprehend." "In an author's note, Duncan Tonatiuh notes that segregation has been on the rise. A 2012 study found that 43% of Latino students and 38% of black students attended schools were fewer than 10% of their classmates were white. A recent Newsweek article proclaimed that " School Segregation in America Is As Bad Today As It Was in the 1960s " (segregation being correlated with if not caused by economic segregation.)"	1	1	1	2	2	1	1	1
